FRIDAY AVENING, JULY 18.

A MAD MOTHER'S CRUELTY.-Eliza Steckler, 60 years old, was arrested at Newburg, N. Y., yesterday on the complaint of the local Society for the Prevention of Cruelty to Children, which charged her with imprisoning her daughter Anna, for the past six years in her home. Anna is 9 years old, and an only daughter, and the mother declared that she had locked her up as a means of preserving her from witches. Mrs. Steckler seven years ago lost a son, Joseph, who was struck on the bead with a stone by some of his companions while on his way to school. Soon afterward her husband died, while another son had a portion of his hand removed by an accident. Her troubles turned the woman's head, and she finally imagined her daughter and herself to be under evil influences. To save the little one from the fatal power she conceived the idea of keeping her shut up within doors. Occasionally she allowed the girl to romp in the back yard, but she was rigidly kept from speaking to another child. Arna's health was injured by this seclusion, and when brought before the Court by Darwin W. Esmond, the society's counsel, she was almost as much an imbecile herself as the mother. After investigating the case the mother was sent to the Almshouse asjum, while the child was placed in a suitable kern.

PUT A BOY UNDER A STEAM DRILL -A most shocking case of brutality came to the Confectioner and Fruit Dealer, notice of the Chicago police Wednesday morning when Albert Magoon took out a warrant for the arrest of Louis Thorpe, an engineer at No. 46 Green street, charging him with maybem. Magoon's eight-rear-old son Willie was in the habit of visiting and playing around Thorpe, and on Wed needay the latter, as he says in fun, held the boy under a heavy steam drill, mullisting him in a herrible mannuer. It is doubtful if the boy recovers
